Examination of the Siren Satisfies Customs Officials.

Customs Officials.

[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., February 19.—The final examination of the former United States ship Siren, which cleared for New Orleans today, falled to develop any evidences that the little vessel, now owned by private parties, is in a filibustering expedition for South American revolutionists. William Klyver, consul for Mearaga, was fully satisfied by the close inspection of the revenue officers.

Captain Larsen, who is in command, claims that the new owners will use the ship for passenger and freight service in Nicaragua, and that she will be in no way connected with any revolution movement. She will put to sea to-morrow.
